

Music and words:
Daniel Jurkowitz
©1994

The Sukkah Boogie

Our ancestors came out from Egypt Land
And they wandered through the desert
'till they found the Promised Land
For housing they didn't have too much time to futz
So they quickly put together a bunch of flimsy huts

That's why we do...

The Sukkah boogie, yeah, the Sukkah boogie, yeah, the Sukkah boogie, yeah, yeah!

In a Sukkah you shall dwell for seven whole days
With the etrog and the lulav that we wave in six ways (North and South and East and West
Up and down, our boogie is the best!)
Looking at the stars and eating a festive meal
Maybe this Sukkah thing ain't such a bad deal

That's why we do...

The Sukkah boogie, yeah, the Sukkah boogie, yeah, the Sukkah boogie, yeah, yeah!